

This latest primary school in the village of Man Kan is the seventh school that we have built in the Pyay district. There are currently 50 children attending. We are paying the salaries for two teachers but the community leaders have applied to the education authority for them to take it over as a state school. This can sometimes take up to 2 years to get approved.

The school was kindly funded by Honey Pot Village.

