

This is an orphanage for 150 children. Twice a week our staff visit to wash all the children's clothes and also provide them with a good meal. As with many orphanages we support, we prefer to actively arrange meals or other services ourselves rather than hand money over to the people who run the projects. That way we have full control of expenditure and we make sure that none of the money spent is wasted.