

We are supporting a group of Roman Catholic nuns and priests in Mandalay who help hundreds of street kids with food, healthcare, education and accomodation.

We have paid 50% of the building cost of a house that accommodates at least 30 homeless children.

